About Merrittville Speedway

Located in Thorold, Ontario, Merrittville Speedway proudly celebrates 75 years of dirt racing excitement. For three-quarters of a century, this legendary track has been the heartbeat of grassroots motorsports in the region. Every Saturday night from mid-April through mid-October, fans are treated to one of the most thrilling shows in racing—right here in the “Heart of Niagara.”

The famed 3/8-mile dirt oval delivers a fast, smooth racing surface and regularly draws over 100 competitors across five action-packed divisions. Weekly programs feature the 358 Modifieds, Sportsman, Mod-Lites, Hoosier Stocks, and 4 Cylinders, along with a full slate of special events throughout the season that add even more excitement to this historic 75th anniversary year.

The action doesn't stop on Saturdays. Tuesday nights under the lights bring WKA (World Karting Association)-style go-kart racing to Merrittville Speedway. For more than 30 years, karting at Merrittville has served as the launching pad for countless drivers who have gone on to shine on Saturday nights—continuing a proud tradition that's now 75 years strong.

About Merrittville Speedway

The Speedway enjoys a weekly attendance that averages 2,500 people over twenty-four race events per season. Located in the core of the Niagara Peninsula, Merrittville Speedway reaches over 1 million potential consumers in the market. It provides a number of affordable and effective marketing packages to reach new customers through unique and exciting mediums.

Today's advertisers, faced with an ever increasing number of media options and rising media costs, are demanding more cost efficient, creative and effective ways to reach large audiences.

Motorsports marketing has won the widespread approval and favour of the corporate community generating maximum results and return on investment. Recent studies have shown that motorsports fans are affluent, educated, upscale, and most importantly, brand loyal consumers.

In the "Heart of Niagara", Merrittville Speedway offers several unique methods of advertising that can be tailored for small businesses and large corporations alike. No matter the size, there is an attractive package to fit your needs and goals. Merrittville Speedway is dedicated to providing you the best form of advertising through motorsports marketing.

We invite you to be a part of the excitement at Merrittville Speedway, and if we can assist you and your company in any way, please feel free to give us a call. We look forward to being your hosts!
